

DOC EDGE SCHOOLS PROGRAMME FREE FESTIVAL SCREENINGS FOR STUDENTS

FEATURES

High Tide Don't Hide (83')

Race and privilege enters the conversation as students must learn to work together to confront their common adversary - climate change.

SUBJECTS: English, Social Sciences, Education for Sustainability, Pasifika Studies, Media Studies, Global Studies, Political Studies

TRAILER: Link to trailer

Advisory: Infrequent strong language

Ngā Wai e Rua: Stories of Us (47')

Moments from our shared history are revisited and reflected upon, thanks to the loving archival preservation work of Ngā Taonga Sound and Vision.

SUBJECTS: History, Tikanga ā-Iwi, English, Social Sciences, Media Studies, Film Studies, Political Studies

TRAILER: Link to trailer

Advisory: Brief scenes of Springbok tour violence

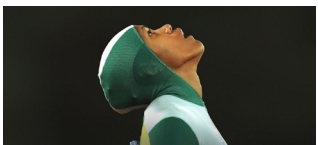

Try Harder (75')

Students grapple with the stress of competing against their peers and pleasing their parents, as they work over time to get accepted into their chosen universities.

SUBJECTS: English, Social Sciences, Media Studies, Psychology

TRAILER: Link to trailer

Freeman (60')

The exhilarating, behind the scenes story of how Olympic runner Cathy Freeman united a divided nation.

SUBJECTS: History, Sport / PE, English, Media Studies, Dance, Political Studies, Indigenous Studies

TRAILER: Link to trailer

The Boys Who Said NO! (90')

The story of how young men in the USA resisted mandatory participation in the Vietnam War.

SUBJECTS: History, Political Studies, English, Social Sciences, Global Studies, Media Studies, Psychology

TRAILER: Link to trailer

Advisory: Contains strong language / imagery of war violence and victims.

Father of the Cyborgs (70')

Meet the controversial scientist whose life's work has been to link the human mind to computers.

SUBJECTS: Science, Digital Technology, History, English, Social Sciences, Health Education, Medicine, Psychology, Ethics

TRAILER: Link to trailer

Advisory: Contains scenes of human brain surgery

SHORTS

Student Competition Shorts (57') ONLINE ONLY

A collection of shorts from aspiring young film makers, showcasing the best of student film making talent.

SUBJECTS: Media Studies, Film Making, English, Social Sciences

FILMS: Glass Walls, The Path to Equality, School Pride, Maranui, Mawhialele Ote Alowha / Our Love, The Silent Alps

TRAILER: Link to trailer

Advisory: The Path to Equality is about the 2019 Christchurch Mosque terror attack.

Social Justice Shorts (83') IN THEATRES AND ONLINE

A collection of shorts from around the world looking at oppression, resistance, injustice and redemption.

SUBJECTS: Social Sciences, English, Media Studies, Indigenous Studies, Geography, Languages, History, Political Studies

FILMS: Greetings from Myanmar, The Mountain & The Maiden, Not in Tanzania, A Broken House, Seahorse

TRAILER: Link to trailer

Advisory: Most short films in this programme deal with themes of war, trauma, and violence.

Unique Shorts (72') ONLINE ONLY

A collection of shorts highlighting the challenges, aspirations and achievements of unique people with special needs.

SUBJECTS: Media Studies, English, Social Sciences, Dance, PE, Health Education

FILMS: Sam, Charlie Surfer, Full Picture, Embracing the Stars, What Was It Like?

TRAILER: Link to trailer

Doc Edge Originals (70'Approx) IN THEATRES AND ONLINE

A collection of short films produced by Doc Edge, suitable for teen audiences.

SUBJECTS: English, Media Studies, Film Making, Social Sciences, Education for Sustainability, Politics, Textiles

FILMS: Make it 16, Paper Dolls, Sea Within a Sea

TRAILER: Still in Production

Advisory: Paper Dolls references female sexuality in relation to clothing.

ONLINE AND NATIONWIDE

All Doc Edge Schools films will be available online and nationwide June 4th - July 11th via our website which will be live on May 1st.

IN THEATRES

Auckland and Wellington teachers will be able to attend theatre screenings of our features and selected shorts programmes with their students, featuring live Q&A sessions with film makers.

Email matthew@dcedge.nz to book a session

For more information on:

1. How to access online screenings
 2. How to book theatre sessions for students in Auckland and Wellington
 3. How to participate in online question and answer sessions
 4. How to obtain your FREE teaching resources specific to each film
- email: matthew@dcedge.nz

The following films are suitable for Intermediate school audiences:

FEATURES

- Ngā Wai e Rua: Stories of Us
- Freeman
- High Tide Don't Hide

SHORTS

- Maranui (Student Competition Shorts)
- Sea Within a Sea (Doc Edge Originals)
- Sam (Unique Shorts)
- Charlie Surfer (Unique Shorts)

Visit our Doc Edge Schools Facebook Page for updates, and special offers.
Email matthew@dcedge.nz for bookings, and schedule details.